

As many of you know, Clovis Point opened its tasting room doors on July 26, 2007. On September 15th, we celebrated that opening with a grand opening party. More than five hundred people attended and, with the wines flowing, everyone had a great time. If you were there, thanks for joining us. If not, we hope to see you soon.

This week, the readers of Dan's Papers awarded us their Best of the Best Award for New Wineries on Long Island. Quite an honor and we appreciate the support. By the way, four of our currently released wines have now won Silver Medals in various recent competitions.

Today, we are announcing the creation of the Clovis Point Wine Club. As detailed below, we believe that the Wine Club is a great opportunity to obtain Clovis Point wines throughout the year at discounted prices, to obtain first and limited release wines and to attend various Wine Club member events. Of course, Wine Club membership is free.

We hope you will review the information below and join us.
